

English language expert has been arranged from Hyderabad to the village.

Home makers and youth are given spoken English classes to empower themselves to get into employment or to support their children in education.